

STAMP of approval

Melbourne's Jewish community is vibrant, engaged and dedicated. These organisations work hard to improve the quality of life of both Jews and non-Jews, locally and in Israel.

includes a regular walking group through

Jewish Care volunteers.

JEWISH CARE (VICTORIA) INC

(03) 8517 5999, www.jewishcare.org.au

Founded on a strong caring ethos, Jewish Care continues to build on its 160-year history to support and enhance the wellbeing of the Jewish community of Victoria. They are guided by their core values to respond to the needs of every individual with sensitivity, understanding and respect.

In addition to providing professional, dignified aged care, they are a first point of contact for people experiencing unemployment, homelessness, emotional and financial difficulties, mental-health issues and those living with a disability. They also provide employment and training services for all sectors of the workforce, financial products for businesses and individuals as well as skills development programs for young people.

Jewish Care is recognised for its innovative and engaging whole-of-life approach. With 530 staff, 250 volunteers and enthusiastic and loyal supporters, the organisation is dedicated to improving quality of life and serving this diverse community.

UIA

(03) 9272 5533,
www.uiavic.org

