

EVERYONE has the right to feel SAFE at HOME.

"A safe home is a place of love, care and respect."

Debbie Ellenbogen,
Social worker-
Jewish Care

"A safe home is one where you are not only listened to, but heard."

Rabbi Gersh Lazarow,
Temple Beth Israel

"A safe home is one where you can sleep peacefully at night."

Anonymous, Survivor of family violence

"In a safe home, your family accepts you no matter how good or bad your day is. It's a place where you can receive love, support and respect."

Sarah Bendetsky,
Subbotnik

"A safe home is one where children's voices are heard and affirmed."

Chaya Herzberg,
Chairperson- AZYC

"A safe home is a place where you feel you belong; where you know you are secure and respected."

Julie Leder,
Jewish Lesbian Group
of Victoria

"A safe home is one in which all are nurtured, loved, respected and heard."

Donna Lelah,
Sephardi Association
of Victoria

If you or someone you know is affected by family violence, please reach out. Help is available. To speak to a social worker, call Jewish Care on 8517 5999. All Jewish Care social workers are trained in responding to family violence. All enquiries are strictly confidential and can remain anonymous. For 24 hour support, call Safe Steps on 1800 015 188 or 1800 RESPECT on 1800 737 732.